

This is my Grandson Elliott.

Elliott is 3 years old. He is my first grandchild and I love him very much. He lives in Enumclaw, Washington.

This is a small town that is 1 ½ hours from where I live. This is way to far.....I would like to see him more often. I make sure that I get to see him once a month. We have fun playing and reading. He Elliott dances!

Grandma Karen loves Elliott!!!

loves his books and his bath. I love to shop at Good Will and find toys for him. When I buy toys they are often learning toys. I really like the Leap Frog products and have purchased quite a few for him.

Elliott is much bigger now.....it has been few months since I have worked on this page. He has been to visit me and we had a grand time. I have been to visit him in his new house. Here are a few pictures of the visit we had at Grandma's house in early May, 2009

I am just playing with these pages, adding pictures and seeing how I can move the pictures and the text around. I want to see the size of the file when I save a WORD file as a pdf as opposed to saving a Print Shop file as a pdf. This all makes a big difference when I am trying to upload to my trip journal from the ship's slow internet connection.
